

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF KING

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

You may be eligible for a payment from a class action settlement relating to your application for employment with Cosco Fire Protection, Inc. A Washington State Superior Court authorized this Notice. You are not being sued. This is not a solicitation from an attorney.

- An applicant for employment, Shannon Spencer (“Plaintiff” or “Class Representative”), filed a lawsuit against Cosco Fire Protection, Inc. (“Defendant”) on behalf of himself and a class of similarly situated applicants for employment. The lawsuit, Shannon Spencer v. Cosco Fire Protection, Inc., No. 25-2-21171-1 KNT (the “Lawsuit”) is pending in King County Superior Court before Judge Nikole E. Hecklinger. Plaintiff claimed in the lawsuit that Defendant’s job postings for open positions in Washington did not disclose the wage scale or salary range and/or general description of benefits being offered in violation of Washington law. Defendant disputes Plaintiff’s claims and contends it has not violated any law and that Plaintiff’s claims are without merit.
- The Court has not made any determinations regarding the merits of the Plaintiff’s claims, and it has not decided whether Defendant violated the law.
- The parties to the lawsuit (the “Parties”) have reached a proposed Class Action Settlement. The settlement includes a total payment by Defendant of $332,000 (“Common Fund”). On August 10, 2026, the Court issued an order preliminarily approving the settlement and authorizing the Settlement Administrator, Simpluris, Inc. (“Settlement Administrator”), to issue this Notice.
- You are receiving this Notice because Defendant’s records indicate you are eligible to participate in the settlement as a member of the Settlement Class. “Settlement Class Members” include “Plaintiff and all individuals who, from January 1, 2023, through July 26, 2025, applied for a Washington-based job opening with Defendant through a job posting on Defendant’s website or an authorized third-party recruiting channel (Indeed.com), where the job posting did not disclose a wage scale or salary range to be provided to the hired applicant.”
- The Court still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. No settlement benefits or payments will be provided unless the Court approves the settlement and it becomes final.
- Please read this Notice carefully. Your legal rights are affected regardless of whether you act or do not act. For complete details, please see the Settlement Agreement, the terms of which control, available at www.EPOASettlementCFPI.com.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is this Notice and why should I read it?

The Court authorized this Notice to inform you about a proposed settlement with Defendant. You have legal rights and options that you may act on before the Court decides whether to approve the proposed settlement. You may be eligible to receive a cash payment as part of the settlement. This Notice explains the lawsuit, the Settlement Agreement, and your legal rights.

Judge Nikole E. Hecklinger of King County Superior Court is overseeing this class action. Shannon Spencer is the Plaintiff or Class Representative. The company he sued, Cosco Fire Protection, Inc., is the Defendant.

2. What is a class action lawsuit?

A class action is a lawsuit in which one or more plaintiffs sue on behalf of a group of people who have similar claims. Together, this group is called a “Settlement Class” and consists of “Settlement Class Members.” In a class action, the court resolves the issues for all class members, except those who exclude themselves from the class.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiff claims that Defendant violated Washington law, RCW 49.58.110, when it did not disclose the wage scale or salary range being offered on job postings for open positions.

Defendant denies that it is or can be held liable for the claims made in the Lawsuit. More information about the Class Action Complaint in the Lawsuit can be found in the “Important Documents” section of the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlementCFPI.com.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided whether Plaintiff or Defendant should win this case. Instead, both sides agreed to this settlement. That way, they can avoid the uncertainty, risks, and expense of ongoing litigation, and Settlement Class Members will get compensation now rather than years later—if ever. Plaintiff and Class Counsel, attorneys for the Settlement Class Members, agree the settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. The settlement is not an admission of wrongdoing by Defendant.

5. How do I know if I am in the Settlement Class?

Defendant’s records show you are part of the Settlement Class because you applied for at least one job opening in Washington with Defendant between January 1, 2023, and July 26, 2025 (the “Settlement Class Period”), in response to a job posting that Plaintiff claims did not properly disclose the wage scale or salary range for the position. If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can contact the Settlement Administrator by calling toll-free at 1-(888)-369-3780, emailing info@EPOASettlementCFPI.com or visiting the Settlement Website at www.EPOASettlementCFPI.com.

8. When will I get my payment?

The hearing to consider the fairness of the settlement is scheduled for December 18, 2026, at 8:30 A.M. If the Court approves the settlement, eligible Settlement Class Members who did not exclude themselves from the settlement will be sent a settlement payment after all appeals and other reviews, if any, are completed. Please be patient. All settlement payments will expire and become void 180 days after the date of issuance.

9. Will Defendant retaliate against me if I participate in the settlement?

No. Defendant fully supports the settlement and will not retaliate in any way against any Settlement Class Member for participating in the settlement. Your decision to participate, not participate, or object to the settlement will not affect your employment with Defendant or Defendant's treatment of you as an applicant, or current or former employee.

THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING YOU

10. Do I have an attorney in this case?

Yes, the Court appointed Timothy Emery, Patrick B. Reddy, and Paul Cipriani of Emery Reddy, PC as Class Counsel to represent the Settlement Class. Their contact information is:

Emery Reddy, PC
600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100
Seattle, WA 98101
Phone: (206) 442-9106

Should I get my own attorney? You don't need to hire your own attorney because Class Counsel are working on your behalf. These attorneys and their firm are experienced in handling similar cases. You will not be charged for these attorneys. You can ask your own attorney to appear in Court for you, at your own cost, if you want someone other than Class Counsel to represent you.

11. How will Class Counsel and the Class Representative be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve, and Defendant agrees not to oppose, an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $99,600, plus costs and expenses of up to $2,500, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. Class Counsel will also request a service award for Plaintiff in the amount of $7,500, to be paid from the Settlement Fund. The Court will determine the proper amount of any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses to award Class Counsel and the proper amount of any service award to Plaintiff. The Court may award less than the amounts requested. Whether the settlement will be finally approved does not depend on whether or how much the Court awards in attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses or service award.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

12. What claims do I give up by participating in this settlement?

If the Court approves the settlement, the Court will enter a final judgment dismissing the Lawsuit "with prejudice." This means that the claims in the Lawsuit will be permanently dismissed. Specifically, Defendant and the other Released Parties¹ will be "released" from

¹ As used in the settlement and this Notice, the phrase "Released Parties" means: (i) Defendant and its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies/corporations and/or partnerships (defined as a company/corporation and/or partnership that are, directly or indirectly, under common control with Defendant or any of its parents and/or affiliates), joint venturers, joint employers, alter-egos, divisions, insurers, reinsurers, insurance policies and benefit plans, (ii) each of the past, present, and future officers, directors, agents, employees, equity holders (shareholders, holders of membership claims as described in Paragraph 18 of the Settlement Agreement, which states upon final approval of this Settlement Agreement, and unless you exclude yourself, you will release Defendant and the other Released Parties

... of and from all claims asserted in the Complaint in the Lawsuit or claims that could have been asserted based on the facts alleged in the Complaint (the “Released Claims”) which arose during the Settlement Class Period (January 1, 2023, through July 26, 2025). The Released Claims include any claims based on Defendant’s alleged failure to comply with the job posting/pay transparency requirements of the Washington Equal Pay and Opportunities Act, including any alleged liabilities arising out of or relating to a failure to include the wage scale or salary range and/or a general description of all of the benefits or other compensation to be offered to a hired applicant in any job postings. The Released Claims include any claims arising out of or relating to a violation of RCW 49.58.110, and any attendant claims for relief under RCW 49.58.070 and/or RCW 49.58.110, actual damages, increased damages, liquidated damages, exemplary damages, statutory damages, minimum statutory damages, interest, and/or attorneys’ fees and costs relating to any of the foregoing.

By being part of the settlement, Settlement Class Members agree that they cannot sue or seek recovery against Defendant or other Released Parties as described in the Settlement Agreement for any Released Claims. Participating in the settlement does not, however, waive claims outside the release.

Any potential Settlement Class Member who does not request exclusion by October 23, 2026, will be a Settlement Class Member and will be considered to have accepted the above release and to have waived any and all of the released claims against the Released Parties. Any potential Settlement Class Member who requests exclusion by the applicable deadline is not a Settlement Class Member, will not be subject to the release, and will not receive any payment.

13. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing and the Court approves the settlement, you will still be in the Settlement Class, receive a payment in the mail or by online payment service, and be bound by all orders and judgments of the Court, the Settlement Agreement, and its included release. Unless you exclude yourself, you won’t be able to file a lawsuit or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendant for the claims or legal issues resolved in this settlement.

14. What happens if I request to be excluded?

If you submit a timely, valid request for exclusion from the settlement, you will not be in the Settlement Class and will not receive a settlement payment. However, you will not release claims against Defendant, and you will not be legally bound by the Court’s judgments in this Lawsuit.

15. How do I request to be excluded?

To request to be excluded from the settlement, you must send a letter, postmarked no later than October 23, 2026, to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

17. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive a settlement payment.

18. How do I object to the settlement?

If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you can object to the settlement if you disagree with any part of it. You can give reasons why you think the Court should deny approval of the settlement by filing an objection. To object, you must file written notice with the Court stating that you object to the settlement in Shannon Spencer v. Cosco Fire Protection, Inc., no later than October 23, 2026. Your objection must be filed with the Court, which you can do by mailing your objection and any supporting documents to King County Superior Court at the following address:

King County Superior Court

If you are represented by an attorney, the attorney may file your objection through the Court's e-filing system.

In addition to filing your objection with the Court, you must also mail copies of your objection and any supporting documents to both Class Counsel and Defendant's attorneys at the addresses listed below, postmarked no later than October 23, 2026:

Class Counsel	Defendant's Counsel
Timothy W. Emery Patrick B. Reddy Paul Cipriani Emery Reddy, PC 600 Stewart Street, Suite 1100 Seattle, WA 98101	Peter H. Nohle Jackson Lewis P.C. 520 Pike Street, Suite 2300 Seattle, WA 98101

19. What's the difference between objecting and excluding myself from the settlement?

Objecting simply means telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself from the Settlement Class is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Settlement Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object, because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

20. When and where will the Court hold a hearing on the fairness of the settlement?

The Court will hold the Final Approval Hearing before Judge Nikole E. Hecklinger on December 18, 2026, at 8:30 A.M. in King County Superior Court, Maleng Regional Justice Center, 401 Fourth Avenue North, Room 4C, Kent, WA 98032. To attend remotely via Zoom, you may use the following link:

Zoom Link: <https://kingcounty.zoom.us/j/87882714988>

The purpose of the hearing is for the Court to determine whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class. At the hearing, the Court will hear any objections and arguments concerning the fairness of the proposed settlement, including those related to the amount requested by Class Counsel for attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses and the service award for Plaintiff.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change by court order. Any changes will be posted at the Settlement Website, www.EPOASettlementCFPI.com, or through the Court's publicly available docket. You should check the Settlement Website to confirm the date and time have not been changed.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have, but you are welcome to attend the hearing at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to the hearing to talk about it. As long as your written objection was filed or mailed on time and meets the other criteria described in the settlement, the Court will consider it. You may also hire an attorney to attend on your behalf at your own expense, but you don't have to.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

Yes. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing concerning any part of the proposed settlement.
